

Non-Domestic Water Metering

Cork County Council, Ireland

Cork

Term: 15 years

Value: £45m

Morrison is employed by Cork County Council to design and build a non-domestic water metering system within 15 months. On completion Morrison are then employed to Operate and Maintain this system for 15 years.

The key activity areas for this project are: -

- Customer identification using map based technologies
- Customer survey and data gathering/ processing
- Meter design and sizing and installation
- Design and development of a comprehensive meter information management system which includes:
 - Survey data
 - Meter readings
 - Location maps
 - GPS co-ordinate data
 - Information for billing and revenue management
- Monthly reading of meters
- Provision of meter readings to CCC for billing and revenue management
- Maintenance of meter installations
- Capital replacement of meters post year 11
- Interfacing with Water Conservation teams for data logging